Haunted by Past Sins

Genesis 38

The Sins of Judah

Genesis 38:1-5 (KJV) 1 And it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. 2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her. 3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er. 4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan. 5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him.

- Genesis 38 seems out of place because it seems to interrupt the story of Joseph
- But it's not out of place, it's a powerful chapter in Joseph's story
- Genesis 38 is about one of Joseph's brothers, Judah
- Joseph's brothers planned to kill him, but Judah said, let's sell him instead for 20 pieces of silver
- Judah gave no thought about God's promises He made to Abram and repeated to his father, Jacob that He would make them a great nation
- Instead, Judah and his brothers killed a goat and dipped Joseph's coat of many colors in blood and told their father that Joseph had been killed by a wild animal
- Judah compounds his sin by leaving the godly influences of his father and building relationships with an ungodly man named Hira of Adullam
- When we have sinned the answer is not to run away from friends, family and God, the answer is to turn back to God and to those that can help us
- While in Adullam, Judah saw and married a Canaanite woman named Shuah
- Judah's marriage produced three sons Er, Onan, and Shelah
- Judah didn't bother seeking God and His will
- When we are out of God's will and the community of faith, we are out of the protection, fellowship, and blessings of God

Judah's Sons vs. 6-10

Genesis 38:7 (KJV) 7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him.... 10 And the thing which he (Onan) did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

- Judah raised his sons in the ungodly environment of Adullam
- After Judah's sons grow up, Judah chose a wife for Er and her name is Tamar
- Unfortunately, Tamar had no children because her husband Er died
- Er died because he was wicked in the sight of God and God destroyed him
- According to the laws of those days, Judah gave Tamar to be the wife of his oldest living son Onan
- The levirate custom that stated if a man died without children, the next oldest brother would marry his wife and bear a son
- The son would then legally be the 1st born son and heir of the deceased husband

Genesis 38

- But Judah doesn't care about Tamar's welfare, all he wants is an heir for his dead son
- Onan doesn't mind the pleasure of sleeping with Tamar, but he refused to consummate the act because it would mean that if a son is born, that son would be the 1st born son and receive a double portion inheritance from Judah
- Onan wanted his father's inheritance for himself with the least number of heirs as possible
- Onan's rebellion would hinder God's promises of expansion for Israel that He gave to Abraham and Isaac
- Onan was so wicked in the sight of God and put him to death, too
- It appears the greed, selfishness and rebellion of Er and Onan seem to be ungodly character traits they got from their father Judah
- Judah's sons "inherited" his evil ways and they took it even further
- If we as parents live ungodly lives before our children, our actions will influence them to live ungodly lives

Judah's Blindness vs. 11

Genesis 38:11 (KJV) 11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

- Judah as one son left, Shelah
- Judah tells Tamar to go home to her father's house and remain a widow until Shelah is old enough to marry her
- There's a problem with what Judah said, he never intended to allow his son Shelah to marry Tamar because he's afraid that Shelah would die like his Er and Onan
- Judah is blind to the true cause of the problem – his sins; he thinks Tamar is the cause of the deaths of his sons
- Judah is also blind to the hand of God at work in all of this
- God sometimes uses the sins and troubles in our lives to get our attention that something is wrong

Judah's Immorality vs. 12-19

Genesis 38:15 (KJV) 15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

- A few years later, Judah's wife, Shuah dies and that eliminates the possibility of Judah having any more children with his wife
- After the time of grieving is over, Judah takes a trip with "his friend" Hirah to the place where his sheep are being sheared
- Someone told Tamar where Judah was

Genesis 38

- Judah's son Shelah is now a grown man, but Judah has not arranged for him to marry Tamar
- So, Tamar takes matters into her own hands and takes a bold risk of changing out of her widow's clothing and disguises herself with a veil over her face and she was dressed as a temple prostitute on the roadside where the temple prostitutes sat outside of a village called Enaim
- If this plan fails, it could cost Tamar her life
- Judah saw Tamar and thought she was a prostitute and propositioned her, not realizing it's his own daughter in law
- Judah has become as worldly as anyone living in Canaan
- Tamar asked Judah how much he will pay to have relations with her
- Judah says I'll pay you a young goat from my flock
- Tamar says what will you give me now to guarantee you'll return with the goat?
- Tamar said leave me your seal and its cord and your walking stick
- Judah and Tamar had sexual relations and she became pregnant
- Tamar went home, took off her veil and put on her widow's clothes again and continued living as a widow
- This sexual encounter takes place in Enaim, the opening of the eyes, but sin still has Judah blind
- Sin has a way of keeping us blind to the danger and consequences of sin

Judah's Self-righteousness vs. 20-25

Genesis 38:24 (KJV) 24 And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt.

- Judah sends his friend Hirah with the goat as payment for the prostitute so that he can get his property back
- Judah is not even ashamed that his friends know what he has done
- But at the same time Judah wants to maintain his "respectability" in Canaan by sending "his friend" with the payment and to get his ID's back
- Judah didn't care about breaking God's laws, but he did care about "his image" in the community
- Judah's values are obviously misplaced
- Hirah goes to Enaim, but can't find the prostitute and the men of the city said that no temple prostitute had ever been in Enaim
- About three months later, Judah learned that Tamar disguised herself as a temple prostitute and she's pregnant right now
- Judah says go get Tamar and let her be burned to death for "her sins"

Genesis 38

- As they were dragging Tamar to Judah, she presented Judah's ID's; his seal, his cord and his walking stick and she asked a powerful question, "who's property is this?"
- Whatever is done in the dark will come to light Numbers 32:23 (KJV) 23 "... behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out."
- Suddenly Judah's eyes are opened, what Judah didn't see in Enaim, he clearly sees it now, Tamar was the prostitute, and he is the father of her child
- It doesn't matter if others discover your sin, your sin will eventually discover you
- Judah is confronted with his life of sin
- God confronts our sins all the time, but many times we ignore it
- All of Judah's past sins have come back to haunt him

Judah's Repentance vs. 26

Genesis 38:26 (KJV) <sup>26</sup> And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more.

- Judah's life of sin has been exposed what is he going to do?
- Judah immediately acknowledged that the seal, the cord and the walking stick were his
- Judah said Tamar was more righteous than he was because he refused to arrange for Tamar to marry his son Shelah
- What Judah was doing was repenting of his wrong
- This is the beginning of Judah's transformation
- The exposure of Judah's sin eventually leads him back to God
- Genesis 38 ends with Tamar giving birth to twins and she named them Perez and Zarah
- That's the end of the chapter, but it's not the end of the story
- God used and overruled the sins of Judah and Tamar to accomplish His plans for Judah's entire family including Tamar
- In God's providence, Tamar becomes an ancestor and part of the family tree of Jesus Christ
- Perez was ancestor of David which means he too, is directly linked to the promised seed, Jesus Christ
- In Genesis 44 Judah and all his brothers were forced to face their sinful lives, they repented to God and became true followers of God
- True repentance of your past opens your life to the future God always intended for you to have
- We don't have sin to the level of Judah to repent, we can repent now
