

HONEST PRAYERS

True Confessions, Psalms 51:1-12

Have Mercy On Me

Psalm 51:1-2 (KJV) Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions. ² Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

- David was a man of passion
- He was passionate about worship, war, and women
- It was the confrontation of Nathan the prophet (2 Samuel 12) to bring him to confess his sins
- Psalm 51 is a psalm of repentance, brokenness before God; it's a true confession
- David realizes what he did was wrong, and he appeals to the mercy of God
- He is asking God for grace and mercy, because that is all he can ask for
- David asks for mercy according to God's lovingkindness
- It speaks of God's unfailing love for us
- According to the multitude of your tender mercies
- God's mercy is abundant
- David humbles himself and asks God for mercy
- David asks God to blot out his transgressions
- David wanted God to blot out his sins from his conscience and from God's record book
- David asks God to wash him thoroughly of his sins
- David had lived with this sin for over a year and his heart had become hardened

I Acknowledge My Sins

³ For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me. ⁴ Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

- Confession begins when you acknowledge your sins
- David knows he is guilty and doesn't blame anyone else for his sin
- He accepts full responsibility for everything
- The damage we've done can't be blamed on others, we must take responsibility
- We as Christians often want to find someone else to blame for our sins
- Confession involves being fully open and honest with God
- David said my sin is ever before me
- What bothered David was his sin.
- David was constantly reminded of his sin, he couldn't escape it
- He tried to ignore it, deny it, rationalize it, but it wouldn't go away
- Against you only have I sinned
- David felt the ultimate sin was against God
- David felt this way because he done evil in the sight of the Lord Proverbs 15:3
The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good

True Confessions, Psalms 51:1-12

- God sees what others don't see
- David realizes in his confession that God commands are just and good even when David broke those commandments

The Depth of My Sin

⁵ Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

⁶ Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

- David's confession gives him a clear view of God
- First and foremost, God is holy, and God hates sin
- David realizes that from birth he had a sinful nature
- David acknowledged the depth of his sins, but his desire was for God's truth to go deeper than his sins
- David wanted God to work in the hidden, unseen parts of his life

Restore Me

⁷ Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. ⁸ Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. ⁹ Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

- Confession does not end with only naming our sins
- Confession also requests God's help
- David realizes that the sins he committed has left him spiritually stained and only a holy God can cleanse him
- David asks God to:
 - Purge him with hyssop and wash him; give me a deep cleaning
 - David didn't need a physical cleansing, David wanted God to give him spiritual and moral cleansing
 - When David asks God to purge him with hyssop, he's asking God to "de-sin" him, totally remove the sin from his life
 - Wash me and I'll be whiter than snow
 - David believes that God's washing is effective, something he couldn't do on his own
 - Make me hear joy and gladness, that the bones You have broken may rejoice:
 - Spiritually break me; I no longer want to wander from you
 - God's actions are not punitive, they are corrective
 - God wants our conviction of sin to be prelude to joy
 - The restoration of joy is God's goal
 - Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities:
 - Again, David asked for forgiveness and restoration

Restore My Heart

¹⁰ Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. ¹¹ Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

True Confessions, Psalms 51:1-12

- David wanted God to do more than clean up the heart he had, he wanted a new heart Ezekiel 36:26 (KJV) 26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.
- He asked God to create in him a new heart, something, only God can do
 - Only God can create something out of nothing
- Renew the right spirit with in me, give me a steadfast, firm spirit
 - Give a spirit that can hold my position, stand in faith and resist the devil
- Don't cast me away from Your Presence
 - David wanted God to know how much he needed him in his life
 - God don't clean me up and remain estranged from me
- Don't take Your Holy Spirit away from me
 - David was saying to God I need your anointing to faithful to you

Restore My Joy

¹² Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

¹³ Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

- Restore the joy of my salvation, give me my joy back
 - David is serious about getting right with God
 - It must be our desire to come to God to be cleansed of sin, forgiven, and restored
- Uphold me with your free spirit
 - David is looking to his future, asking God to continue to hold by the power of the Holy Spirit
- I'll teach transgressors your way
 - When our lives are washed and purged of sin we are useful to God and others
- I have a testimony of my sins and God's mercy and grace
 - David says I want to have a life that has a positive impact on sinners
 - I want others' lives to be changed like mine has been changed
- If we truly confess our sins, God will use us again
- When we go to God in repentance, we may start with "remorse and regret", but we leave restored and renewed
